PLUMBING INSPECTOR INGALLS ASSUMES HIS NEW DUTIES.

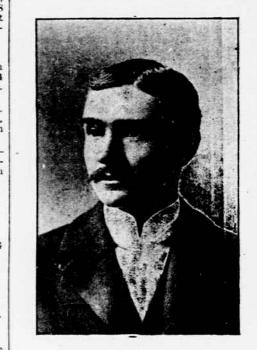

Graduate of Cornell Unievrsity and a Man of Experience - His Past Record.

Mr. O. L. Ingalls, the newly appointed inspector of plumbing, today entered upon the duties of his office. Mr. Ingalis during the past twelve years has been an assistant engineer in the plumbing department of the District service, and is regarded as one of the most competent and well-equipped men in the engineering branch of the municipal service. Although a comparatively young man, Mr. Ingalls has had a great deal of experience in civil engineering work, and has been connected with many important projects. He succeeds Mr. Charles B. Ball the Low administration in Greater New Mr. Ingalls is a native of New York. He was graduated as a civil engineer from Cor-nell University in 1886, and is now a member of the American Society of Civil Engiin the plumbing office, the latter having recently resigned to accept a position under

Immediately after his graduation Mr. Ingalis spent two years in railroad lo-cation and construction work on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad. At the expiration of that time be resigned to accept an appointment on the new Croton aqueduct in New York city, where he was chiefly engaged upon the extensive masonry repairs in the aqueduct tunnel near Tarry-After one year of service in this capacity he was granted six months' leave of absence and came to Washington in the apacity of an assistant engineer to the board of sanitary engineers, Messrs, Her-Gray and Stearns, and was engaged with them in the work of preparing plans for the sewage disposal system of the Dis-trict of Columbia, which is now being gradually carried toward completion.

Returns to Croton Aqueduct.

Upon the completion of the plans Mr. Ingalls returned to New York, and again took up his duties in connection with the Croton aqueduct. Soon after this Col. Lusk of the army, who was then assistant to the District Engineer Commissioner, offered Mr. Ingalls a position in the engineer department of the District government, and upon his acceptance assigned him to duty in the sewer department under Mr. D. E. McComb. the superintendent of sewers. Since his appointment in 1890 in the District service Mr. Ingalls has been continuously employed upon construction and maintenance of public sewers, making the preliminary surveys, construction of new work. He served as engineer in charge of the construction of the F street and Easby's Point high-level intercepting sewer, the Rock creek intercepting sewer and the Tiber creek and New avenue high-level intercepting He was also in charge of all the work being done on the uncompleted contracts of John Jacoby, lately deceased, which included the east side intercepting sewer from the foot of New Jersey avenue southeast to near 21st and A streets norththe Catholic University and the extension of the Boundary sewer, which has a diameter of twenty-two feet, and is by far the largest sewer in the District. Served as Superintendent of Sewers. Mr. Ingalls acted as superintendent of sewers in 1899 during the absence of Mr. McComb in Havana, Cuba, where the latter was engaged in preparing an elaborate report upon the most satisfactory drainage system for the Cuban capital. Besides his connection with the District government. Mr. Ingalls has also served as engineer for John Peirce, contractor, in connection with the erection of the new city post office building, and as engineer for the Standard Butterine Company in devising a practicable drainage system for its plant at Langdon. Mr. R. A. O'Brien will continue in the plumbing office as first assistant inspector. In addition to these duties he has been appointed by the District Commissioners to fill the vacancy on the plumbing board caused by the resignation of Mr. Ball, the office carrying an additional salary of $300

UNDER FAVORABLE AUSPICES.

This Afternoon.

The second week of the Elks' midwinter carnival was ushered in this afternoon under most favorable conditions. There was an unusually large crowd at the matinee. The children of the Washington City Orphan Asylum were the guests of the "horned hosts" during the afternoon, and Christ. the youngsters enjoyed a rare treat. They were admitted free to many of the amusement features. A committee of Elks looked after their welfare and saw that they wanted for nothing. There will undoubtedly be a large crowd at Convention Hall tonight, when the result of the balloting for names for the baby lions will be announced. A name selected by the public will be conferred upon one of the lions tonight, another tomorrow night and still another on Wednesday night. While the members of the committee having this matter in charge have been guarded in discussing the probable names of the lion cubs, it is pretty generally believed that two of them will bear the names, respectively, of "Teddy" Roosevelt and Admiral Schley.

Saturday night was a gala time at the carryla. carnival. The largest crowd that has thus far attended the big show was present and saw everything there was to be seen. J. M. Dunn, the "king of fakirs," says the Elks' country store is restocked and ready for another big week.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

LODGE OF THE DRDER OF ELKS

INSTITUTED. Organization Starts Off With Thirty-Four Charter Members-General and Personal. Evening Star Bureau, No. 701 King Street, Ball Telephone No. 106,

ALEXANDRIA, Va., February 10, 1902. Ceremonies instituting Alexandria Lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, were held yesterday in Odd Fellows' Hall, on North Columbus street. Grand Exalted Ruler Edward Jashine, district deputy of Maryland and the District of Columbia, presided and was assisted by a number of past officers of the order from Washington Lodge, No. 15, and Baltimore Lodge, No. 7. About fifty visitors from Washington were present and almost as many more from Baltimore, as well as several from Richmond, Danville and other neighboring cities.

There were thirty-four charter members of the lodge. These were initiated by the following officials: Edward J. Shine of Washington, grand exalted ruler; M. E. Urell of Washington, grand esteemed leading knight; Thomas F. McNulty of Baltimore, grand esteemed royal knight; Albert Sillers of Washington, grand chaplain; H. more, grand esteemed royal knight; Albert Sillers of Washington, grand chaplain; H. F. Mears of Baltimore, grand esteemed lecturing knight; Philip Kelly of Richmond, grand treasurer; Thomas F. King of Washington, grand inner guard; R. A. O'Brien of Washington, grand secretary; W. C. Newcomb of Danville, grand tyler.

The election of officers for the new lodge resulted as follows: Edward (Oulnn expense).

resulted as follows: Edward J. Quinn, exalted ruler; H. H. Kelly, esteemed leading Schneider Following the installation ceremonies.

which were not concluded until about 6 o'clock, the visitors were entertained at a dinner given by the members of the local lodge on the first floor of the hall. The lodge starts its existence under very faverable circumstances.

Meeting of Supervisors.

The regular monthly meeting of the Alexandria county board of supervisors was held this morning at the court house on Fort Myer Heights. The board has appointed a committee to arrange a plan for correcting the names and addresses upon the assessment land books of the county. The committee will rid the books of all names improperly placed thereon, thereby greatly simplifying the work of this de-partment. Messrs. James E. Clements. George H. Rucker and W. C. Wibert constitute the committee.

The question of recommending to Judge Love of the county court the appointment of one person for each district as road overseer had not been decided when report closed. It will probably be determined upon this afternoon. The propose appointments are to be made the fourth Monday in this month, and the terms will be two years, beginning March 1. There are three such offices to be filled.

General Matters.

Funeral services over the remains of Mr. James T. Rogers, whose death occurred in Philadelphia Friday last, took place at 10 Johnson, colored, told Judge Scott after be- o'clock Sunday morning. Rev. Dr. George L. Hunt of the First Baptist Church officlated, and the interment was made in the Methodist Protestant cemetery.

It is stated that the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company has decided to construct a double track along the line from this city to Richmond. However, inquiry at the office of the comout and imposed a fine of §5. Fifteen days pany in this city this morning failed to elicit any definite information.

At Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church last evening the pastor, Rev. J. A. Jeffers, preached a special sermon on the theme, "A Big Promise to a Small Company." It was the last of a series of six S ing sermons preached by Mr. Jeffers.

A special series of revival services was commenced last evening in the Free Methodist Church, on South Lee street. Meetings will be held in the evenings throughout the week. Mrs. Annie Ford died this morning at her home, No. 403 Wolfe street. She is survived by her family. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

CLOSING MEETING HELD.

Results of Revival Services at Ninth Street Christian Church.

Evangelists Allen Wilson and F. C. Huston of Indianapolis, Ind., who have been assisting Rev. E. B. Bagby, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Church, on Capitol Hill, in a series of gospel meetings, held in that edifice during the past five weeks, held their concluding services yesterday. During the meetings 379 persons professed conversion, a number of whom will take membership with other churches. Over 200 additions to the 0th street church resulted. The remarkable growth of the church was shown in a report of Dr. G. T. Prewitt, the Second Week of Elks' Carnival Opens secretary of the Sunday school, which stated that there were 442 present at the first Sunday of the meetings, 518 at the second. 610 at the third and 661 yesterday. The largest number of additions gained in one day was made on Sunday, January 12, when ninety-six came forward. At the Sunday school session of the same day fifty-two of the scholars also confessed

The total membership of the 9th street church, with the recent accessions, will be over 1,100. The growth of this congregation from a small mission of sixty-two members, in eleven years, is regarded as one of the most remarkable records made by any church in this city. The handsome house of worship in which the congregation meets was dedicated four years ago. A marked feature of yesterday's meeting was the raising of $2,281 to be devoted to the liquidation of the debt remaining upon the property.

Local Church Sold.

To the Editor of The Evening Star: In your article under the above caption it is stated that two weeks ago the offer of Mr. Walsh was considered by the quarterly conference and it was not accepted. Since then the trustees have had the proposition under further consideration, and finally they reached the unanimous conclusion that it would be to the advantage of the church to accept the offer. This is misleading. There was no unanimous conclusion, because I was absent from sickdeath at Point Pleasant, N. Y., last Sat-urday, of Mrs. Amelia Goodrich Lewis, who was for many years a resident of this city. The body is to be interred in Rock Creek cemetery Wednesday afternoon at

The doctor directed that the sick man should be conveyed to some hospital as soon as possible, but the driver of the ambulance which was to remove him reported at the Anacostia police station that on account of the treacherous state of Good Hope hill and the condition of his horses he was unable to reach Hanesworth's home. The police succeeded in having medicine dispatched to the house for his use during the night, and yesterday morning the ambulance went to the house and conveyed Hanesworth to the Washington Asylum Hospital.

Ellen Foster, the chair man of the committee on courtesies, inquired as to the probable number of members of the council to be entertained at a reception. The reply was about one hun-dred. Mrs. Copeland and Mrs. Hammond were added to the committee on decora-

The entire local committee will act as a finance committee. It is believed the af-filiated societies will be glad to contribute to the expenses of the entertainment. A resolution was adopted requesting all ladies in Washington who own carriages and who are willing to co-operate with this commit tee in extending hospitalities to the delegates to communicate at once with Mrs. Emma Stewart Ellis, 2224 F street northwest, chairman of com nittee on reception of delegates. Mrs. Woods was appointed chairman of the committee on pages. These will be young ladies who will be designated by a light blue badge with white rosette. A committee on music was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Spencer, Miss Hetty Abraham and Mrs. J. Ellen Foster. Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey was appointed a member of the local committee. The committee on reception of delegates was increased to ten. The meeting adjourned at 6 p.m., to meet Saturday, February 15, at 3 p.m., at same place.

SADIE FOUSER FOUND DEAD.

Body to Be Removed to Lancaster, Pa. for Interment.

Miss Sadie E. Fouser was found lead in bed in her room at 515 13th street northwest about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Her father, who lives at 561 South Christian street, Lancaster, Pa., was notified, and the body will be taken there for interment.

Miss Fouser was about twenty-five years few days ago and was conveyed to the Emergency Hospital. Saturday she left the hospital and was accompanied to her room by a young woman. Miss Fouser was still sick, and friends in the house waited on her. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning she was given some medicine, and seven hours later her dead body was found. James Fouser, father of the young wo-man, is a laboring man at Lancaster. He sent Fred F. Groff, a funeral director, for the body, after receiving a telegram from Major Sylvester telling him of his daughter's death.

An autopsy performed on the body this morning showed that death resulted from congestion of the lungs. Undertaker Groff prepared the body for burial, and took it away on the 2 o'clock train for interment at Lancaster.

FLORIZEL ILL.

Boy Violinist Will Not Appear Here Tomorrow.

A telegram was received by Mr. Luckett, manager of the Columbia Theater, this morning from Major J. B. Pond saying that Florizel, the boy violinist, was ill and would not be able to play in Washington tomorrow afternoon. The date of his recital here will be announced hereafter.

Funeral of Mrs. Lacey.

Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Metropolitan M. E. Church over the remains of Mrs. Margaret M. Lacey, widow of Capte Anderson P. Lacey. The pastor of the church, Rev. Frank Bristol, will be assisted by Rev. Hugh Johnston, D.D., the former pastor, and Rev. H. R. Nailor, D.D., presiding elder of this district. The interment will take place at Arlington, where Mrs. Lacey's body will be placed beside that of her husband.

Mrs. Lacey, whose death occurred at the Homeopathic Hospital, this city, last Saturday afternoon, was born in Virginia, but in early childhood was taken by her parents to Ohio, where she was reared and educated. She was married to the late Anderson P. Lacey just before the war. After the war Capt. Lacey served two terms in the Ohio legislature, and then they removed to Washington. Mrs. Lacey was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a member of Metropolitan Methodist church many ears, and during Captain Lacey's long service as superintendent of the school Mrs. Lacey was one of the leading spirits in the work of Sunday school and church, and also in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of which she was repeatedly elected treasurer until compelled by ill health to decline further service. Her social activities were also marked, and prior to her husband's last illness, their home on Columbia Heights was well known for its delightful hospitality. Her nephew, Prof. C. M. Lacey-Sites, Ph. D., who is widely remembered in this city, has been virtually a son to the de-ceased, and for many years her hopes and happiness have centered about him. AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN.

General and Personal News From the West End. The skaters held high carnival yesterday on the streams surrounding town, the sport being enjoyed from early morning river and a large number of persons were out. The ice is about four and one-half inches thick. The high wind which swept over the surface the entire day rendered the sport somewhat disagreeable, but at the same time it prevented the ice from melting. There were also a number of skaters on the Little river and on the canal and Rock creek.
